

You are cordially invited to attend an ICE Workshop:

ICE ACCESS

287(g) and Other Enforcement Opportunities

ICE ACCESS (Agreements of Cooperation in Communities to Enhance Safety and Security) provides local law enforcement agencies an opportunity to team with ICE to combat specific challenges in their communities, such as transnational gangs, criminal aliens, alien and drug smuggling, and money laundering.

Showcasing:

■ Section 287(g)

Delegates immigration enforcement authorities to state and local officers.

■ Criminal Alien Program (CAP)

Secures a final order of removal for incarcerated criminal aliens, preventing their release back into communities.

■ Operation Community Shield

A comprehensive approach to combating transnational gangs.

■ Operation Predator

A program designed to identify, investigate and, as appropriate, administratively deport child predators.

Please join us to discuss these programs and more:
